

Friends of Los Peñasquitos Canyon Preserve
Hike Schedule for July, August & September, 2010

Date	Hike Leader	Description	Meet here
July, 2010
Sat. July 10 8 a.m.	Varies	Tracking Walk Everyone is invited to join us for a free, easy tracking walk to learn about the art of tracking and the Los Peñasquitos Canyon Preserve. Beginner and Intermediate levels.	Meet at the Historic Adobe Ranch House on Canyonside Park Drive and Black Mountain Road, Rancho Penasquitos. Thomas Guide p. 1189 (C7)
Sun., July 11 7:30-9:30 p.m.	Mike Kelly	Nighttime Wildlife Hike with Mike Kelly Join naturalist Mike Kelly on this moderately paced loop walk to Carson's Crossing. Good change of encountering mule deer, owls, bats, and more.	Meet at kiosk at Camino del Sur (old C. Ruiz) and Park Village Rd. in Rancho Penasquitos. Thomas Guide p. 1189 (A7-B7)
Sat., July 24 7:30-9:30 p.m.	Will Bowen	Night Walk with Will Bowen, PhD. We start at dusk and walk into the night to experience a different canyon in the dark. Hopefully we will encounter owls, bats, deer, and night-blooming plants. The senses other than vision are enriched at night. This is also a chance to contemplate the moon, stars, and constellations. Bring a flashlight and water. You might need insect repellent.	Meet at 4206 Sorrento Valley Blvd. in Sorrento Valley, San Diego. Thomas Guide p. 1208 (D5).
Fri., July 30, 7:30-9:30 p.m.	Brian Swanson	Owl Walk with Brian Swanson Learn about the natural history of our owls, bats and other nocturnal creatures that live in our preserve. Join naturalist Brian Swanson for a 2 to 3 mile hike as we search for three species of owls. Wear sturdy shoes and darker clothing, and bring a flashlight.	Meet on the west side of Canyonside Park ball fields at Black Mountain Road and Canyonside Park Driveway. Thomas Guide p. 1189 (C7).
August, 2010
Sat. Aug. 14 8 a.m.	Varies	Tracking Walk Everyone is invited to join us for a free, easy tracking walk to learn about the art of tracking and the Los Peñasquitos Canyon Preserve. Beginner and Intermediate levels.	Meet at the Historic Adobe Ranch House on Canyonside Park Drive and Black Mountain Road, Rancho Penasquitos. Thomas Guide p. 1189 (C7)
Sat. Aug. 14, 7:30-9:30 p.m.	Mike Kelly	Nighttime Wildlife Hike with Mike Kelly Join naturalist Mike Kelly on this moderately paced loop walk to Carson's Crossing. Good change of encountering mule deer, owls, bats, and more.	Meet at kiosk at Camino del Sur (old C. Ruiz) and Park Village Rd. in Rancho Penasquitos. Thomas Guide p. 1189 (A7-B7)
Fri., Aug. 27, 7 - 9 p.m.	Brian Swanson	Owl Walk with Brian Swanson Learn about the natural history of our owls, bats and other nocturnal creatures that live in our preserve. Join naturalist Brian Swanson for a 2 to 3 mile hike as we search for three species of owls. Wear sturdy shoes and darker clothing, and bring a flashlight.	Meet on the west side of Canyonside Park ball fields at Black Mountain Road and Canyonside Park Driveway. Thomas Guide p. 1189 (C7).
Sat., Aug 28 7:30-9:30 p.m.	Will Bowen	Night Walk with Will Bowen, PhD. We start at dusk and walk into the night to experience a different canyon in the dark. Hopefully we will encounter owls, bats, deer, and night-blooming plants. The senses other than vision are enriched at night. This is also a chance to contemplate the moon, stars, and constellations. Bring a flashlight and water. You might need insect repellent.	Meet at 4206 Sorrento Valley Blvd. in Sorrento Valley, San Diego. Thomas Guide p. 1208 (D5).

Date	Hike Leader	Description	Meet here
September, 2010
Sat. Sept 11 8 a.m.	Varies	Tracking Walk Everyone is invited to join us for a free, easy tracking walk to learn about the art of tracking and the Los Peñasquitos Canyon Preserve. Beginner and Intermediate levels.	Meet at the Historic Adobe Ranch House on Canyonside Park Drive and Black Mountain Road, Rancho Penasquitos. Thomas Guide p. 1189 (C7)
Sat., Sept. 11, 7:30-9:30 p.m.	Will Bowen	Nighttime Spider Hike with Will Bowen, PhD. In late Summer and early Fall you cannot predict exactly when in the first hours of evening the Orb Spiders build huge beautiful webs across the trail. This is a hike to look for and admire these webs. We might find other spiders, like Black Widows, and maybe bats and owls. Bring a flashlight and water. You might need insect repellent.	Meet at 4206 Sorrento Valley Blvd. in Sorrento Valley, San Diego. Thomas Guide p. 1208 (D5).